Promote and Maintain High
Standards of Conduct

Nolan Principles

SEVEN PRINCIPLES OF PUBLIC LIFE

Holders of public office should uphold the following seven principles:

Selflessness

Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

Integrity

Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.

Objectivity

Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

Accountability

Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

Openness

Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for doing so.

Honesty

Holders of public office should be truthful.

Leadership

Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

Interests Continued

- Beneficial Interest in land within the LA area
- In these circumstances member is prohibited from participating in the discussion at the meeting, or voting on any matter to their interest or from taking any steps in relation to the issue unless a dispensation has been granted.

Two Exceptions

- Sensitive Interests
- Dispensations

[Example: "I have a disclosable pecuniary interest on Item XX because this planning application relates to my property" or "I have a personal interest in Item XX because the land is to be leased to the Parish Council and I am a Parish Councillor"].

In terms of participating in the meetings, the Code states that if the interest is a;

- disclosable pecuniary interest the Councillor can't participate in the discussion, can't vote and must leave the room unless they have obtained a dispensation from the council's Monitoring Officer or Standards Committee.

[It is a criminal offence for a Councillor to be involved in the discussion and / or vote on a matter in which they have a disclosable pecuniary interest]

- personal interest the Councillor can be involved in the discussion and / or vote on the matter.

Social Media

- It is recommended that – Cllrs think before you press send!
- Blurred identities- could it be thought that you are acting as a member?
- Code of Conduct can apply so observe the same rules
- Predetermination/bias/defamation/data protection rules - all apply to social media.
- More popular - would guidance for Cllrs be useful?

- Any Questions?
